

	Nasreen's Secret School: A True Story from Afghanistan by Jeanette Winter This book is inspired by a true story and talks about the power of education that changed the life of a little girl. Amazon: $19.79
	The Most Magnificent Mosque by Ann Jungman and Shelly Fowles- This book is a historic fiction book that is set in the 7th Century Spain. Talks about three children from three different religions and how they all work together to achieve a common goal. It talks about power of teamwork and unification and not division. It is an easy read with beautiful pictures that can be used to talk about many issues. Amazon: $6.90
	Ramadan Moon by Na'ima B. Robert- Ramadan is the ninth month of the Muslim calendar. This book uses the phases of the moon and ties it with the joyous celebration of Ramadan for Muslim children and the festival of Eid al Fitr that follows it. This book is written from a perspective of a child who celebrates Ramadan but is also for communities that want to understand what it means to celebrate this festival. Amazon: $9.26
	Four Feet Two Sandals by Karen Lynn Williams and Khadra Mohammed- This book honours the power of friendship and is set in a refugee camp. The lives of these two little girls circles around uncertainty of being a refugee however their strong spirits are rekindled by a friendship when they share sandals. Amazon: $22.99
	Growing Up Muslim: Understanding the Beliefs and Practices of Islam by Sumbul Ali- Karamali- This is a personal account of the author who grew up in Southern California. While growing up she was asked many questions by the non-muslims around her. This books offers the honest answers about many misconceptions that may be in the minds of people. Amazon: $17.99
	The American Muslim Teenager's Handbook by Dilara, Imran and Yasmine Hafiz- Explores the complexities of being American Muslim youth. How can youth reconcile their identities and still be true to their faith while living in America?. This informative guide is written in a fun and positive way with opinions from teens all across the country. Amazon: $8.98

	Transcultural Teens- Performing Youth Identities in French Cities by Chantal Tetreault- This book may be suitable for high schools or for adults. The topic of intercultural bitterness is explored, within the young people of Algerian Arab origin in the cities of France. Amazon: $42.20
	Everyday Struggles- The Stories of Muslim Teens by Sumaiya Beshir- Life of a teen is hard as it is but being a Muslim teen adds that additional factors of beliefs and identity. This book deals with real life stories of Muslim teens where they share their highs and very lows going through high school years. Amazon: $13.95
	Ms.Marvel No Normal by G.Willow Wilson- This is a Graphic Novel in which an ordinary girl is suddenly transformed into this extra ordinary heroine, with super natural powers. Who is she truly is the question now; girl, teenager, muslim or inhuman? Is she ready to apply these gifts for good or will it be too overwhelming for her? Amazon: $16.19
	Amina's Voice by Hena Khan- The main character Amina is a quiet girl. When she attends middle school she became friends with a “cool” girl and thought about even changing her name to a more “American” name. Does she need to change who she actually is, to fit in? Will she be able to fit in after all? Amina is still figuring out these questions when her local mosque was vandalized... Amazon: $20.09
	Does My Head look Big in This? by Randa Abdel-Fattah- Amal, the main character, is a sixteen year old high school student. She makes a decision to start wearing the hijab full time. Everyone around her even her parents, tries to convince her otherwise but she sticks by her decision. Will she be able to keep to her decision and still be able to attract the cutest boy in high school? This book deals with lots of teenage issues regardless of anyone's beliefs. Amazon: $11.87
	1001 Inventions - The Enduring Legacy of Muslim Civilization and 1001 Inventions and Awesome Facts about Muslim Civilization – These two books provide insight into the technological, medical and scientific advancement during the Muslim Civilization, which is primarily forgotten by the rest of the world. This book takes readers on a journey through years of forgotten Islamic history to discover one thousand fascinating scientific, technological and medical advancements in the Golden era of Muslim civilization but referred to as dark Ages by the Western world. Amazon: $39.13 Amazon: $17.77

	The Genius in Islam by Bryn Barnard Do you like orange juice? You can thank Islamic farming innovations for that. The modern skyline was made possible by Islamic architecture. This book in short, engaging texts uses colourful pictures to bring Islamic contributions and innovations to life that are otherwise hidden from us. Amazon: $14.49
	The Proudest Blue by Ibtihaj Mohamed With her new backpack and light-up shoes, Faizah knows the first day of school is going to be special. It's the start of a brand new year and, best of all, it's her older sister Asiya's first day of hijab--a hijab of beautiful blue fabric, like the ocean waving to the sky. But not everyone sees hijab as beautiful, and in the face of hurtful, confusing words, Faizah will find new ways to be strong.
	The Gift of Ramadan by Rabia York Lumbard Sophia wants to fast for Ramadan this year. Her grandma tells her that fasting helps make a person sparkly--and Sophia loves sparkles. But when her attempt at fasting fails, Sophia must find another way to participate.
	Lailah's Lunchbox: A Ramadan Story by Reem Faruqi Now that she's old enough, Lailah is excited about fasting for Ramadan. But will her classmates and teacher understand why she's not eating lunch?
	Golden Domes and Silver Lanterns: A Muslim Book of Colors by Hena Khan This beautiful color concept book links colors to Muslim customs, clothing, or concepts like a red prayer rug, a blue hijab, etc.
	Mommy's Khimar by Jamila Thompkins-Bigelow A young Muslim girl puts on a head scarf and not only feels closer to her mother, she also imagines herself as a queen, the sun, a superhero, and more.

Yo Soy Muslim by Mark Gonzales

A lyrical celebration of multiculturalism as a parent shares with a child the value of their heritage and why it should be a source of pride, even when others disagree.

Power Forward by Hena Khan

Fourth grader Zayd dreams of being the first Pakistani-American in the NBA, but when he skips orchestra rehearsal to practice basketball, his parents forbid him from playing.

The Gauntlet by Karuna Riazi

When twelve-year-old Farah and her two best friends get sucked into a mechanical board game called The Gauntlet of Blood and Sand, a puzzle game akin to a large Rubik's cube, they know it is up to them to defeat the game's diabolical architect in order to save themselves and those who are trapped inside, including her baby brother Ahmed.

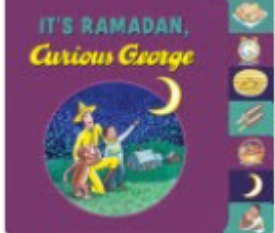

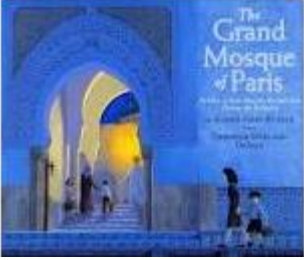

The Night Diary by Veera Hiranandani

Half-Muslim, half-Hindu 12-year-old Nisha is caught in the middle when India is partitioned into India (Hindu) and Pakistan (Muslim) in 1947. The people in government who are supposed to protect the citizens seem to be tearing everything apart and Nisha is not certain where she will land.

Love, Hate, and Other Filters by Samirah Ahmed

Maya just wants to love who she loves and do what she loves – she wants to go to New York to study film, but her parents want her closer to home. And they'd never approve of the white boy she has a crush on. But everything changes when an attack at the state capital is mistakenly blamed on a Muslim man – suddenly Maya's family is the target of attacks themselves.

	Saints and Misfits by S.K. Ali Fifteen-year-old Janna Yusuf, a Flannery O'Connor-obsessed book nerd and the daughter of the only divorced mother at their mosque, tries to make sense of the events that follow when her best friend's cousin—a holy star in the Muslim community—attempts to assault her at the end of sophomore year.
	It's Ramadan Curious George by H. A. Rey and Hena Khan It's the first day of Ramadan, and George is celebrating with his friend Kareem and his family. George helps Kareem with his first fast and joins in the evening celebration of tasting treats and enjoying a special meal
	The Grand Mosque of Paris: A Story of How Muslims Rescued Jews During the Holocaust by Deborah Durland DeSaix and Karen Ruelle The Grand Mosque of Paris is the story of the Muslim community of Paris during the Nazi occupation of World War II and their efforts to rescue Jews. The mosque constructed in 1926 had space for a community center, library, restaurant, clinic and apartments for the functionaries.